3rd Festival Cinema Brasil 2007

From September 5th (Wed.) until 9th (Sun.) at Tokyo International Forum (Hall D1)

Tupiniquim Entertainment Co., Ltd. (CEOs: Junji Tanabe and Kendi Kawai) will hold its 3rd Festival Cinema Brasil 2007 from September 5th (Wed.) until 9th (Sun.) at Tokyo International Forum (Hall D1).

Brazil is not only one of the resource-supplying countries and leading country introducing ethanol to help in the global economy but is also receiving a lot of recognition in the movie industry. The company in order to keep introducing the Brazilian movie to Japan has held the festival since 2005.

Next year will be the 100th anniversary of the Japanese immigration to Brazil. This year's festival is once more bringing part of Brazil to Japan with titles to all family, music clips and much more!

NEWS 1 – Prestigious guests from Brazil for interview and to a symposium

Prestigious guests from Brazil and Japan get together to talk about the "now" of the Brazilian movies.

Symposium: September 5th (Wed.) 7:35 pm-9:05 pm at Tokyo International Forum (Hall D1) Free admission

- Under inevitable circumstances guests' list may change.

NEWS 2 – Selection of movies with environmental theme!

This year's movie selection includes some titles focusing environmental problems aiming to make the audience think more in the CO₂ reduction problem and environment protection.

Indians losing their land, villains destroying forests and polluting the ocean are some of the highlights of the festival.

News 3 – One Coin (500 yen) Special Presentation!

The adventure movie for children The Island of Earthbuster can be watched for only 500 yen even for adults. Has the theme "ecology", common problem faced by every country, and we want children and their parents to enjoy it together. In addition, we are also sending information to elementary and international schools in order to have children from different countries watching together.
